THE LAW OF NEWSPAPERS.

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary, are considered as wishing to continue their subscription.
2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their newspapers, the publisher may continue to send them until all arrearages are paid.
3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their newspaper from the office to which they are directed, they are held responsible until they have settled bills and ordered their discontinuance.
4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publishers and the newspapers are sent to the former direction, they are held responsible.
5. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers from the office or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.
6. The United States Courts have also repeatedly decided that a Postmaster who neglects to perform his duty of giving reasonable notice, as required by the Post Office Department of the neglect of a person to take from the office newspapers addressed to him, renders the Postmaster liable to the publisher for the subscription price.

HINTS FOR FARMERS.

It is not what we make but what we save that makes us rich.

In looking around among my brother farmers, I notice many things wherein there might be greater economy, in my opinion.

In turning cattle out late in the fall,
when the ground is soft, to be trampled upon.

In letting cattle stand in an unsheltered yard in cold, stormy weather, when there is room in the stable for them.

In throwing their fodder in the yard, to be trampled under foot, instead of feeding
it in racks.

In not having water in the yard for cattle,
in place of driving them through snow and all kinds of weather to the creek, thereby losing more in manure during a year than the interest of what it would cost to bring the water in the yard, to say nothing of the convenience.

In not having a house for poultry to roost
in, and save their droppings; the value of the latter from one hundred fowls, in one year, would pay the cost of the building,
not counting the advantage it would be to the fowls.

In not having a wood-house to cut in, in rainy days, and store up dry wood.

In leaving potato vines, weeds, etc., go to waste instead of hauling them to the hog-pen, to be worked into manure.

In riding about and leaving the management of the work too much to hired help.

And last, but not least, in sending their children to school a day or two in each week and allowing them to play and loiter
about the rest of it.

THE EDITOR AND THE FORTUNE TELLER.

Kentucky editor visited a fortune teller
recently. He makes the following report of the revelations concerning his past and future:

Thou has served three years in the penitentiary for a horse thou didst not steal—Thou wilt be Governor of the Senate of the United States. A wealthy young lady, with blue hair, Auburn eyes, and very beautiful, is now about to graduate from the House of Correction, whom thou wilt marry as soon as thy present wife, diest, which will be fourth full of the next moon. Thou wilt become possessed of this lady's wealth, and elope with the wife of a coalboat engineer.
Thou wilt go to New Orleans, and start a keno bank, which will bring thee in great riches. After an absence of nineteen years, thou wilt return to thy repining wife, lay thy princely fortune at her feet, be forgiven, and after raising a family of nineteen children,
die happy, at the age of ninety-nine.

☞ Dan Rice has been worried in a conflict with his Sacred Cow.

☞ New Orleans is now said to be one of the most healthy cities in the United States.

☞ The prisons in Spain are choked with political prisoners.

☞ A peat bed has discovered in a business street of Rochester.

☞ It is rumored that Chili and Mexico
are to form a close alliance.

☞ There is a line of 450 miles of continuous railroad west of St. Louis.

FREAKS OF A MADMAN—A few days ago
two gendarmes, whilst making their round about midnight at Courbevoine, perceived an individual in a complete state of nudity, quietly seated in the middle of the principal square.

"What are you doing there?" asked the gendarme.

"You know well enough," replied the man. I am Adam, and I am waiting for you to bring me a companion; you can take one of my ribs if you like!"

The gendarmes at once saw that they had fallen in with a madman. They accordingly laid hold of him after covering him with a cloak, and conducted him to the police station.

"Archangels!" said the poor fool, whilst being taken to the station, "the moment
has not yet come to drive me out of Paradise."

The gendarmes laughed heartily at being mistaken for archangels.

Ward Beecher turns his back upon the Independent and will give his sermons to the N. Y. Examiner.

ONLY WAITING.

A very aged man in an almshouse was asked what he was doing now. He replied:
"Only waiting."

Only waiting till the shadows
Are a little longer grown;
Only waiting till the glimmer
Of the day's last beam is down;
Till the night of earth has faded
From the heart once full of day,
Till the stars of Heaven are breaking
Through the twilight soft and gray.

Only waiting till the reapers
Have the last sheaf gathered home,
For the summer-time has faded,
And the autumn winds have come.
Quickly, reapers! gather quickly
The last ripe hours of my heart,
For the bloom of life has withered,
And I hasten to depart.

Only waiting till the angels
Open wide the mystic gate,
At whose feet I long have lingered,
Weary, poor and desolate.
Even now I hear their footsteps,
And their voices far away;
If they call me I am willing,
Only waiting to obey.

Only waiting till the shadows
Are a little longer grown;
Only waiting till the glimmer
Of the day's last beam is down;
Then from out the gathering darkness,
Holy, deathless stars shall rise,
By whose light my soul shall gladly
Tread its pathway to the skies.

THE HARDEST ROW FIRST.

"Why don't you begin at the beginning?"
said Mr. Owen to Mr. Ruthven, who was vigorously engaged in hoeing corn.
"I always take the hardest row first, that makes all the rest seem easier," said Mr.
Ruthven.

"There is something in that."
"There is a good deal in it. Besides, if you take the hardest part first, the rest is pretty sure to be done. Easy work always stands a better chance to get done than hard work."

"Do you observe the same rule in spiritual matters?"

"I try to. I don't always succeed as well as I do in temporal matters."

"It is not always easy to determine which is the hardest row spiritually."

"Take the one that you are least inclined to take."—Sunday-School Times.

☞ Mr. Green sued a lady for a breach of promise. Her friends offered to settle it for two hundred dollars. "What!" cried Green, "two hundred dollars for ruined

and a bleeding heart! Two hundred dollars for all this! Never! never! never! Make it three hundred and it is a bargain!"

☞ "Are those bells ringing for fire?" inquired Simon of Tiberias. "No, indeed," answered Tibbe "they have got plenty

How IT HAPPENED—A German
who got into difficulty in All-gany a few days since, when called upon for an explanation, attuned his soul to harmony struck an attitude and musically discourse as follows:

"Hans Briemann giff a party,
Ve all cot trunk as pigs,
I puts mine mou to a parcel of peer
An schwallowed up mit uswig
And den I kiss Matilda Yane,
As she schlog me on de kop,
An do gompany fight mit table legs
Till de constable make us stop."

"I suppose, sir," said a quack while feeling the pulse of a patient, "that you take me for a humbug!" "Sir," replied the sick man, "I perceive that you can discover a man's thoughts by his pulse."

SCENE IN A MOTEL.

—Yes we have the strongest one about more. Do you consider him fearless—that is bold and courageous? Clerk—As brothers."

with that stupid lover of yours? Did you succeed in getting rid of him?"

☞ "Oh yes I got rid of him easily enough. I married him, and have no lover now."

J. B. CARPENTER.
EDITOR.

SATURDAY, DEC. 15 1866

We hope to be excused this week for our small amount of editorial, as the Editor has been so busily engaged in his official duties that it has been impossible for him to do any writing, but he has promised us to do better in the future—so pardon him for this time. Com.

Our old friend, Maj. L. P. Erwin, still continues to sell his goods to the highest bidder. His sales will continue to-day and to-night. All who want good and cheap goods would do well to attend his Auctions, for you will surely lose great bargains by not attending.

We regret to learn that the Cleveland Argus, published by Messrs. Hayden & Nelson, has been suspended, and, quite likely, they will not commence the publication at Shelby again, as the people of Cleveland county do not seem to appreciate the worth of a newspaper published in their midst enough to patronize one as they should, and unless a paper is patronized largely in its own county it is useless to expect it to live long.

Hogs.—Within the last two weeks several large droves of Hogs have passed through this place for Southern Markets. They were owned by men from our sister State, Tennessee, and were selling at prices from ten to twelve cents gross. We are indeed glad to see them coming through.

Legislative Summary.

Dec. 6th.

BILLS ON 2ND READING,
A bill for the relief of the people.
A bill for providing homesteads.
Also a bill in relation to working public roads, were laid on the table.

Dec. 7th.

HOUSE.—Mr. Everett, a bill to change and regulate the fees of county solicitors.

Dec. 7th.

SENATE.—A bill authorizing several justices of the peace to fix the rates of jailor's fees. Passed its second reading.

The rules was suspended and the bill passed its third and final reading.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

A bill to repeal the 6th section 48th chapter of the Revised Code, read and passed.

A bill providing for working public roads read and passed.

A resolution by Mr. Russ that, where, as, certain persons are interested to misrepresent the sentiments of the people of this State, this Legislature representing the people record in solemn form as the sense of this Assembly that the representations aforesaid are false.

Mr. Davis said that he knew of no disloyalty. That persecution of Union men was untrue. That partizan contestes would always arise and men differ. That no one could blame the people for their preferences. That if there was a man in this State so base as to say her people was disloyal, he would brand him as a double traitor. That persons interested in misrepresenting North-Carolina at present, formerly pretended to be good Confederates. How could the people trust them? If any were disloyal, such men were.

Mr. Davis called for the yeas and nays.

Mr. Williams, of Yancey, asked to be excused from voting. He said that he did not know the truth about these things.

The House refused to excuse him.

Mr. Crawford of Rowan said that if the gentleman did not know the truth he could tell it to him, and call names. W. W. Holden and his colleagues were disloyal. He was willing to tax the people, if there was no hell here in North-Carolina for these men, to build a hell.

Mr. Lyon called him to order, and took his seat under the ruling of the speaker.

Mr. Blair moved to lay the resolution on the table. The House refused as follows:

YEAS.—Messrs. Ashworth, Beasley, Black, Blair, Blythe, Garrett, Hinnant, Jenkins, of Gaston, Jenkins of Granville, Jordan, Lyon, Moore of Chatham, Morton, Scoggin, Teague, Vestal, and Williams of Yancey.

NAYS.—Messrs. Allen, Antry, Baker, Boyd, Bowe, Bradsher, Bright, Brown, Bryson, Carson, Chadwick, Clark, Clement, Cowan, Crawford of Macon, Crawford of Rowan, Dargan, Davis, Davidson, Durham, Everett, Farrow, Freeman, Galloway, Gambrell, Garris, Gorham, Granberry, Guess, Harding, Horton, of Wilkes, Houston, Hutchinson, Jones, Judkins, Kelsey, Kenan, Kendall, Latham, of Washington, Lee, Long, Lowe, Lutterloh, May, McArthur, McClammy, McGeoghan, McKay, McNair, McRae, Moore, of Hertford, Morehead, Morrisett, Murrill, Neal, Patton, Perry, of Carteret, Perry, of Wake, Reinhard, Richardson, Rogers, Rosebro, Russ, Scott, Shelton, Simson, Smith, of Duplin, Smith, of Guilford, Stevenson, Stone, Sudderth, Trott, Turnbull, Umstead, Walker, Waugh, Westmoreland, Whitley, Williams, of Harnett, Williams, of Putt, Womble, and York.

Mr. Blair offered an amendment that those who inflamed the Southern mind to the late war were not worthy of confidence.

The amendment was lost.

Mr. Lyon moved to postpone indefinitely. Lost.

Mr. Russ said that he presented this resolution and endorsed it. He held that any man, who misrepresents North-Carolina was unworthy of respect. He would vouch for the loyalty of our people. The men who were attempting to prejudice the Northern people against us and overturn existing affairs, were like midnight assassins attempting to rob your houses. He went on in that strain for some time.

Messrs. Lyon, Freeman and others explained the reasons of their votes when the ballot was had as follows:

YEAS.—85, NAYS 14.

The word "Union" was inserted in an amendment on motion of Mr. Lyon. The Union men were hissed twice during the proceedings, and the secessionists frequently applauded.

Dec. 8th.

SENATE.—Mr. Avery, a bill to incorporate the North Carolina Emigration Company. Ordered to be printed and referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Mr. Speed a bill to authorize the Dismal Swamp Canal Company to issue coupon bonds bearing 8 per cent. interest.

On motion of Mr. Leach, the rules were suspended and the bill passed its several readings.

A bill to incorporate Pasquotank Lodge No. 103.

A bill to incorporate the Hibernian Benevolent Society in the City of Wilmington.

A bill to incorporate the McLean Fire Engine Company in the town of Fayetteville.

The resolution granting W. S. Mason Esq. compensation for services rendered under the direction of the Governor, also passed its final reading.

Mr. Clark, from the committee on Corporations, to whom was referred a bill to incorporate the Union camp ground in the county of Cleveland. Referred back the same with an amendment recommending its passage.

A countryman, not long since on his first sight of a locomotive declared that he thought it was the devil in wheels. "Faith an ye're worse than myself," said an Irish bystander "for the first time I ever saw the crather, I tho't it was a sthame boat hunting for water."

Sydney Smith defines English benevolence to be "a strong impulse on the part of A, when he sees B in distress to compel C to help him."

It was a very miserly old woman who with her last breath, blew out an inch of candle, saying as she did so, "I can see to die in the dark."

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.

SENATE.—Mr. Sumner gave notice he will to-morrow introduce resolutions declaring the power of Congressional representation and from voting on Constitutional amendment.

Mr. Chandler moved, but the Senate refused, to take up House bill repealing the act authorizing the President to issue proclamation of amnesty &c. Adjourned.

HOUSE.—Mr. Westworth offered a resolution which was adopted, insisting upon the adoption of the Constitutional amendment, before the House will consider the proposition of the Southern States to admit their representatives.

The House of Representatives to day adopted a resolution inquiring into the expediency of repealing the cotton tax.

Mr. Broomall, of Pa., also offered a resolution which was adopted by a vote of 107 to 37, instructing the committee on territories to enquire into the propriety of extending territorial organization over the States lately in insurrection.

Mr. Stephens offered a resolution for the appointment of a committee of five to report to the House at its next session the past and present relations existing between the general government and the railroads in the States lately in rebellion, the amount of money expended in constructing, repairing, equipping and managing such roads; the amount now due each one of them to the government in relation to said roads.

The joint committee on reconstruction is revived.

The House committee on the judiciary have reported against repealing so much of the confiscation act as prohibits the forfeiture of the real estate of the included classes, beyond the term of their natural lives. They say to forfeit altogether the property of those engaged in the late rebellion would be the enactment of ex post facto law within the meaning of the constitutional interdict, by annexing to a crime already committed a new and additional punishment.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—The Senate adopted the standing committees agreed upon by Republican members in caucus to-day. They remain as they were, except Messrs. Doolittle, Cowan and Dixon were removed from their positions. No committees are now headed, by friends of the administration.

Mr. Wade introduced a bill for the admission of Nebraska into the Union. Laid on the table for the present.

The committees for the session were announced. Mr. Williams introduced a resolution instructing the committee on retrenchments to inquire to what extent the President has a right to restore U. S. and if such law exists to what extent it can be executed &c. Adopted.

Mr. Trumbull, moved the reference of the bill for the repeal of the President's amnesty power, to the committee on the Judiciary. This gave rise to a debate, at the conclusion of which the bill was referred.

Mr. Sumner offered the resolutions on reconstruction, of which he gave notice yesterday. They assert the right of Congress over the subject of reconstruction, and deny the right of the lately rebellious States to pass upon constitutional amendments. Read and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Williams, of Pa., called up the bill of last session for the regulation of appointments to and removals from office, and addressed the House in advocacy of it.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—SENATE.—Mr. Trumbull reported favorably from the Judiciary Committee the bill of the House, to repeal the Amnesty power of the President, and asked its immediate consideration. Mr. Hendricks objected, and it goes over.

Mr. Wade called up a bill of last session to regulate the selection of grand and petit juries, in the territory of Utah, which was ordered to be printed with the amendments.

Mr. Poland gave notice that on Monday, he would call up the bankrupt bill. It was ordered, on motion of Mr. Sumner, that when the Senate adjourns to-day, it would do so to meet on Monday next.

Mr. Wilson gave notice, that he would call up next week, a joint resolution to disband and prohibit militia organizations in the Rebel States. Senate then adjourned.

HOUSE.—On motion of Mr. Washburn, of Illinois, the Post Office committee was instructed to inquire into the expediency of conferring on the Post Office Department, the same jurisdiction and control over the various telegraph lines now in operation, or hereafter to be constructed, that is now exercised over Post offices and post roads, and to report by bill or otherwise.

The bill for the regulation of appointments to removal from offices, came up and was postponed until next Monday.

On motion of Mr. Pike, a select committee of three was ordered to inquire into the circumstances of the murder of three U. S. soldiers in S. C. in Oct., 1865, and of the reprieve and subsequent pardon of those convicted thereof.

On motion of Mr. Elliott, a select committee of three was appointed, to proceed to New Orleans and institute inquiry into the riot there in July and August last.

On motion of Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, the Judiciary committee was instructed to inquire into the necessity of further legislation in regard to the organization of the House and the country, of the Electoral votes.

On motion of Mr. Keelson, the same committee was instructed to inquire into the propriety of directing martial law to be proclaimed, in the rebel States where Union men have been murdered and the law not enforced against the murders.

Mr. Schenck's bill to fix the time for the Regular meeting of Congress, came up as a special order. Mr. Schenck explained and advocated it.

After an extended discussion on an amendment, ordering the elections in all the States on the 29th of February next, and after providing in the first section, that Congress shall meet on the 4th of March. The House at 3 adjourned till Monday, when the bill again comes up.

Liquid Catarrh
Remedy
SYMPTOMS.

The symptoms of Catarrh are at first very slight. Persons find they have a cold, that they have frequent attacks, and are more sensitive to the changes of temperature. In this condition the nose may be dry, or a slight discharge, thin and acrid, afterwards thick and adhesive, may ensue.
 As the disease becomes chronic, the discharges are increased in quantity and changed
 in quality; they are now thick and heavy,
 and are hawked or coughed off. The secretions are offensive, causing a bad breath; the voice thick and nasal; the eyes are weak; the sense of smell is lessened or destroyed; deafness frequently takes place.
 Another common and important symptom of Catarrh is that the person is obliged to clear his throat in the morning of a sick or slimy mucus, which has fallen from the head during the night. When this takes place, the person may be sure that his disease is on its way to the lungs, and should lose no time in arresting it.

The above are but few of the many Catarrhal symptoms. Write to our Laboratory for our pamphlet describing fully all symptoms, it will be sent FREE to address. Also directions where to procure the medicine.

We are receiving letters from all parts of the Union, and also numerous testimonials from those using it, bearing the evidence of its infallible merit.

This remedy contains no MINERAL or POISONOUS INGREDIENTS, but is prepared from vegetable extracts EXECUTIVE LY; therefore it is PERFECTLY HARM-LESS, even to the most tender and delicate child.

CALL FOR SEELY'S CATARRH
REMEDY, and take no other. If not sold by druggists in your vicinity, they will order it for you. Price $2.00 per bottle.

All persons suffering with any affection of the Head, Throat or Lungs, should write at once for our pamphlet fully describing all symptoms pertaining to the above diseases.
 It will be sent free to any address.

Manhood How Lost, how Restored.

JUST published, a new edition of Dr.

CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure (without medicine) of Spematorrhoea, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary

Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable

essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife—

pointing out a mode of cure at once simple,

certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition

may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately,

and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to
